WOMAN'S WORLD AND WORK

LILIAN CRAWFORD PERKINS

My Wage
I bargained with Life for a penny.
And Life would pay no more.
However I begged at evening,
When I counted my scanty store.

For Life is a just employer.
He gives you what you ask,
But once you have set the wages,
Why, you must bear the tax.

I worked for a menial's hire
Only to learn dismayed,
That any wage I had asked of Life
Life would have paid.

—Jessie B. Ettinghouse

Todays Events.
Grand opera quartet will appear in Convention hall.

Change in Quarter.
Mr. Robert Boles Carson is in receipt of news telling of the sudden illness of Mr. George W. H. H., who has been stricken with some disease which will prevent his appearance here on Saturday night.

Through much difficulty at this late hour, the management has been able to secure Mr. Thomas Chambers of the Metropolitan Opera company to undertake his place who has been persuaded to fill M. De Leon's place until he is able to sing again.

return engagement of the Metropolitan opera quartet to Tulsa is flattering; when one stops to consider the call from all parts of the country for the sake of those who are interested and will attend tonight the

DEFENDANT IS IRRESPONSIBLE

Charge Against James Andrews Is Reduced to Petty Larceny

Learning by glance that the defendant is considered a mental incompetent, the charge of grand larceny filed against James Andrews in the court of Justice H. C. Maxey on October 16 was reduced to petty larceny at the preliminary hearing yesterday and the defendant released on payment of a fine of $10 and costs.

Andrews, 27 years old, was captured at 10 as he escaped from a local clothing store with two silk shirts which he had stolen. A traveling man, reading of the arrest of Andrews, immediately obtained counsel for the defendant and suggested that the court consider him as a harmless but irresponsible man. Acting upon this information the charge was reduced upon promise of the friend of the defendant that the latter should be sent to his mother's home in Commerce to await trial.

A century ago the law of Maine obliged a husband to pay all his wife's debts in case she bought him any clothing.

Change of venue was taken yesterday by O. G. Poyner, charge with assault on Paul H. Reed. He defendant being allowed to take the case from the court of Justice S. C. Maxey to that of Justice H. J. Gray for preliminary hearing. Counsel for Poyner claimed possible prejudice on the part of Justice Maxey. Poyner is held under bond as the result of the serious injury of Hodges on October 1, when it is charged, Poyner attacked him with revolver and a knife, stabbing and beating Hodges about the head and body.

Miss Tidwell's School of Millinery begins Monday, October 29. Day and evening classes. All materials furnished.

The Millinery Jobbers' Association has issued an appeal to the entire millinery trade, including the military, to assist in the organization of the United States Association with the Roosevelt administration week which is stated for October 29 to 31. H. L. Heimann, work secretary of the local association, has issued a circular calling for contributions of the event in Tulsa. Some public speakers will be secured and an effort will be made to draw suitable lessons of the life and example of Colonel Roosevelt for young men and unless a remedy is found the meeting will be held in Convention hall.

H. L. Lynch was issued a permit to construct 14,000 residence and garage at 123 North Cheyenne. Permission to build a $4,000 residence at 1422 North Cheyenne was granted J. C. Poole. Charles A. Reed was permitted to build a $3,700 residence and garage at 2442 East Ninth street, and W. M. McColley was authorized to construct a $1,500 dwelling at 812 North Phoenix. The permit amount to be paid will be made by G. W. Stilwell at 151 North Creekfield and an addition costing $300 will be made to the residence of T. B. Bliss at 1015 North Main.
